Arizona Credit Union's Raise More than $400,000 for Children's Miracle Network in 2010

(Phoenix) –March 10, 2011- The Arizona Credit Union League is pleased to announce that in 2010 the state's credit unions raised $423,301 for Credit Union for Kids (CUs4Kids), the credit union movement's charity program for raising money and supporting Children's Miracle Network hospitals.

In 2010, Phoenix credit unions raised $377,975 to benefit Phoenix Children's Hospital, while Tucson credit unions raised $45,326 for Tucson Medical Center. Phoenix funds help support One Darn Cool School, a K-12 inpatient education program enabling kids to continue their regular classroom studies while at the hospital. Tucson monies support the Pediatric Expansion Capitol Campaign – Block By Block, Miracles Happen.

Desert Schools Federal Credit Union raised the most money out of any Phoenix credit union for Phoenix Children's Hospital. They were followed by First Credit Union, TruWest Credit Union and Arizona Central Credit Union. Canyon State Credit Union was also honored for the highest percentage increase in fundraising.

In Tucson, Hughes Federal Credit Union was the top earner. Rounding out the top five were Tucson Federal Credit Union, Arizona Central Credit Union, Vantage West Credit Union and Pima Federal Credit Union.

About Arizona Credit Union League

The Arizona Credit Union League (ACUL) is the state trade association serving 52 independent Arizona credit unions, representing more than 1.8 million members and $12 billion in assets. Not-for-profit in nature, credit unions provide low cost financial services to their members. Founded in 1934, ACUL supports credit unions in Arizona with governmental affairs, regulatory compliance, legal, human resources, education, communications, publications and public relations services. ACUL is affiliated with the Credit Union National Association (CUNA), the World Council of Credit Unions, and the CUNA Mutual Group. For more information visit:
